Questão: /Question:

Celso,

It was very good finally getting to meet you at the Latina conference in São Paulo in late March. As you know EVERYBODY associated with Eucalyptus around the world, I'm wondering if you know anyone in Italy? I'm trying to put together a table of Eucalyptus plantations in Europe, and I know that there are some in Italy, I saw one figure of 72,000 ha, but not sure where that came from, or how out-of-date it might be... Do you have any suggestions as to who I might check with, that would know about Eucalyptus in Italy?

Thanks,
Bob Flynn

Hello Bob, great hearing from you.
I suggest you to follow two roads:

- First, to check the Italian figures at the Eucalyptus global map, the one that has been built by our dear friend Gustavo Iglesias Trabado (available at: <http://git-forestry-blog.blogspot.com/2008/09/eucalyptus-global-map-2008-cultivated.html> ). You may get in touch with him to check the origin of the figures, exactly the 72.000 ha mentioned by you (info@git-forestry.com)
- Second, you may contact FAO headquarters, located in Rome - they should have a more recent data for Italy, as far they have some of the best statistics in forestry over the world. I suggest to contact a friend of mine (Mr. Olman Serrano - olman.serrano@fao.org ).

Good luck and a lot of success.

Best regards,
Celso
